Hi, my name is Nick Morgasen and I am the next Prodigy in bowling. I try really hard to perfect my bowling every single day. Also I work hard at the bowling alley I bowl at. I bowl at Farmingdale Lanes in Farmingdale, New York and I'm an intern in the pro shop with Damon Brown. Damon is a very successful pro bowler who runs the pro shop called the Bowlers Source Pro shop. He is dedicating his time to help me so I can learn everything about bowling balls and equipment and learn how to drill the balls and resurface them. Also, when I'm not working in the pro shop, Damon is my bowling instructor helping me to get better so I can compete in my bowling tournaments. While he puts all this time into helping me with my bowling and to learn, he also believes in me. When I'm not bowling well or I'm struggling he will always have faith in me to get out of the slump I'm in. Also he will work harder with me to make sure I have success. As I said, I bowl in a lot of tournaments. I bowl about 25 to 30 tournaments during the year for the Long Island Youth Bowlers Tour (LIYBT) and the Junior Bowlers Tour (JBT). I have won three tournaments and placed in the top 5 many times. It is a great way to build up scholarship money for college.

Now that you know I'm dedicated to bowling there is another side of me you need to know about. I love to give back to the community and also I like to help kids who are in need of special services. There is this program in my community called KISS which stands for Kids In Special Services. This program brings "special" kids together to bowl and have a good time and make friends. I volunteer as a counselor for the KISS program. I love working for this program because I like to help kids and I love to give back to the community. In the future I want to run a bowling foundation to benefit kids who are in need of special services. The more kids I can make happy the happier it makes me feel.

I love the name of the Storm bowling ball the Prodigy. This is how I see myself being the next bowling Prodigy:

P	OWERFUL
R	ESPONSIBLE
O	UTSTANDING
D	RIVEN
I	GNITED
G	IVING
Y	EARNING

Bowling is my passion and I hope it stays with me forever. My wish is one day to go out and try to win titles on the PBA tour. I know that winning on the PBA tour is tough so I plan on going to college. In college I'm going to major in Communications. I really want to learn Media Arts on the computer. If I can't succeed with bowling then I hope to be a Prodigy in the Media Arts field. To show how I'm dedicated to the Media Arts field, I have included a picture that I made to showcase the Storm Prodigy bowling ball. The tagline I came up with is "Capture the Next Prodigy by Storm".
