

Prodigy writing contest

I am Sam Manausa and I believe I am the next Prodigy. I am 13 and my average is around upper 150. My highest game ever is 257 with 8 strike in that game and 6 in a row. The most I have ever got in a row was the Front 8. I hope to bowl a 300 before I turn 14. Most people think I stink but I think they are saying that because they think im good or they stink. I have a furious from storm which was my first bowling ball, a tropical storm that I won at the nor cal state tournament, and a tornado from ebonite. My future is to buy myself an invasion because I want that ball so bad but I couldn't afford it. But my brothers friend got one and my brother bowled a 300 in practice with it. But right now im focusing on my future on trying to bowl a 300 and hold the highest series in the house. Right now the highest series is 848. My highest series is 598. My most exciting moment was when I bowled my 257. Soon my exciting moment is coming soon when I bowl my first 300. I hope to do it in league and get a ring. I always get high games on Saturday mornings which is what league im in. I have 2 players on our team and 2 vacant. I usually get 170 and 180. I never got 200 in this league but I did when I was on Friday league. I bowled a 212 and a 203. Those are my highest games in league. I usually use my tornado because the tropical storm is a little heavy. I don't really use my furious because the ball is light and it doesn't hook a lot. My tornado hooks on dry lanes and my tropical storm hooks a lot and I always come up high and get Brooklyn strikes with it so I have to throw it fast so I don't come up high. I always come up light with my furious and always leave the 5 pin. My tornado leave the 10 pin. And my tropical storm leaves the 5,8. We usually make up nicknames on what kind of strike and pin we leave. Like when I leave a ten pin we call it the goldfish. A lucky strike my brothers friend Kyle. An 8 pin my brothers friend Michael. The 8 pin costed him a 300. The 10 pin costed my brother and Kyle a 300. My brother got a 300 (3x). 2 of them weren't with his ball. He used mikes virtual gravity and he sold it to him after it. That was his first 300 ever. Then he bowled another one with mikes invasion. That time mike didn't sell it to him. Then My brother used his own ball. He used his black widow he got at a donation (which is when I got the tornado). So far he is the one ,but I think I am the 1!
